

Julie's Tarot Reading

Tarot card combinations

---

3 Swords & 10 of Swords

So what do these cards together represent? Let's dive in & find out.

3 Swords shows an experience heartbreak & pain after betrayal or a significant loss. The card suggests that you are going through an with this loss; this card asks you to try to confront your emotions in order to heal. intense emotional trauma & you may be struggling to come to terms

10 Swords represents the ending & painful journey, it will be difficult & very challenging, you may experience utter defeat & feel you are at the lowest point in your life, but this card also implies that the situation will soon improve.

Summary

These two cards combined, indicates that an individual's is experiencing the ultimate betrayal & heartbreak, leading to a sense or defeat & despair. The individual needs to confront the intense emotion they are feeling & deal with the situation in a healthy manner.

On the positive side, it is essential to understand that the 10 of Swords signals the end of a difficult journey even if it is painful. This card asks you to accept the inevitable and find comfort in the healing process – leading to self growth and new beginnings.

I hope you enjoyed this article, keep a look out for more coming soon...