Astrology & Tarot – What is the connection?

Welcome back Tarot fans. In this article I will give you a quick insight into how Astrology goes hand in hand with Tarot & why it enhances your readings.

So, the question is what & are astrological signs are associated with the Major Arcana tarot cards? Let's get into it!!

Aries - The Emperor

Aries likes to be in a position of power & to take charge of situations. The Emperor card is about how to be a proper force in ruling the state or government. Be prepared to act on your instincts, act in a defensive manner & take immediate charge; The Emperor Tarot card is a confident leader & entrepreneur

Taurus - The Hierophant

Taurus folk are known to have a defined value system. Their set ways of looking at the world means that the Bull will never evade the ideology they believe in. No matter what else is going on in their life, they'll stay true to values, spirituality & beliefs that are a part of them. The Hierophant is a card of spiritual & mental commitment; this is a sign of someone who will be a wise leader & mentor.

Gemini - The Lovers

The Lovers is all about choice and the need to understand juxtaposing sides in order to effectively make decisions. Like the zodiac sign Gemini, this card gives us both narratives. The caveat is that we must use our Mercurial skills in understanding and making the right decision that can shape our lives for the better.

Cancer - The Chariot

The vehicle of movement (The Chariot) has stopped. Instead of moving forward, it's opting to go in a different direction. Like the crab, The Chariot isn't taking the straight path, rather moving from side-to-side. This card reminds us that situations and emotions may change, but the outcome remains the same. Sentiments are always in flux.

Leo - Strength

Taming the passion, of others & yourself takes a lot of patience & energy. Be kind to yourself & to others, try to show compassion & understanding. Maintain the "strength" to back away from arguments that occur because of desires & frustrations.

Virgo - The Hermit

Virgos are often seeking clarity, understanding, knowledge & perfection & this is the nature of The Hermit card. This card is about reflection, shedding light on matters & using one's analytical mind to make proper decisions. Information is coming that will offer insight, wait and see what is being brought to consciousness & awareness now.

Astrology & Tarot – What is the connection?

Libra - Justice

Like the zodiac sign Libra, the scales of justice are depicted in the tarot card. It is a reminder to be honest, fair, maintain balance & ensure equality in all matters. If not, then Karma will come full circle & make things right for you. Play by the rules & do right by others is the message in this card.

Scorpio - Death

The Death card represents transformation & growth. Scorpio is the only zodiac sign who easily evolves with times & wants to change throughout the stages of their life. Moving towards a new view, self or place in this world can be intense but, also extremely helpful towards one's personal well-being.

Sagittarius - Temperance

You cannot do everything in extremes, if you do, then things will go haywire. The Temperance card is a reminder to find moderation & peace within. Sagittarius, remember when building greatness, knowledge & understanding the ways of the world takes time. Don't rush the process.

Capricorn - The Devil

All work & no play can lead one to feel as though they cannot escape annoying mundane, activities. It signifies relationships or situations that have become toxic. This horrible cycle needs to end - letting go from power struggles & dominant situations is hard. Take back your personal strength, it will be challenging but it can be done.

Aquarius - The Star

This card usually depicts a water-bearer (the symbol of Aquarius) by a stream. It is a card of promise, hope & new beginnings, all of the attributes that describe the zodiac sign Aquarius. If you're experiencing a difficult time or are in need of change, The Star card is a positive omen.

Pisces - The Moon

The Moon rules the tides & flow of the ocean, water & our bodies. In this card, the crayfish is emerging from the water to see two dogs howling at the Moon. Therefore, it shows fear, confusion & illusion.

The Hanged Man also represents the sign of Pisces; Signifying wisdom, circumspection, discernment, trials, sacrifice, intuition, divination & prophecy.
