

Julie's Tarot Reading

The Angels – The spiritual meaning

These heavenly beings, believed to act as messenger of God, represented in human form are sent by God to inspire, guide & protect the human race. Here are some of the well known angels although there are a great deal more.

Archangel Michael – 1st Chakra: Stability & Security

Archangel Michael represents the 1st chakra (Root); he is a spiritual warrior & the leader of God's army who represents healing & protection.

Michael is a champion of justice & the guardian of the Church; he is also the angel of death who assists souls on their journey to heaven after death.

An angel of supreme power; a protector of divine justice; he defends people from their enemies or the devil.

Root Chakra; Stability, security, safety & grounding; also linked to your familial roots, background & the ability to feel firmly rooted in your life

Archangel Ariel – 2nd Chakra: Intimacy & Creativity

Archangel Ariel represents the 2nd chakra (Sacral); she is the governing angel with power over the earth, creative forces, the North, elemental spirits & beasts.

Ariel talks of putting others needs before our own & by doing so we not only enhance our own well-being, but we also build stronger & more fulfilling relationships with the people around us.

She is particularly helpful in healing & working with animals; she is associated with the crystals Rose Quartz & Rhodochrosite.

Sacral Chakra; feelings, emotions, confidence & healing

Archangel Chamuel – 3rd Chakra: Emotions & Desire

Archangel Chamuel represents the 3rd chakra (Solar Plexus); he is associated helping to bring peace to the world & can be called upon when someone is struggling with anxiety, relationships or forgiveness.

He is the embodiment of God's love & compassion & giving courage & helping people to deal with difficult times when they feel alone or defeated.

Solar Plexus Chakra; personal power, self-esteem & ability to take control of one's life

Julie's Tarot Reading

The Angels – The spiritual meaning

Archangel Raphael - 4th Chakra: Love, compassion & self acceptance

Archangel Raphael represents the 4th chakra (Heart); is associated with healing abilities & his name means God heals; he is known as a healer, a guide, a demon tamer & God's intercessor for mankind.

Raphael is associated with the element of air or metal & the lungs & intestines; represented by the colour green & the crystal Emerald

This angel is the patron of traveller's & lovers; he is also associated with mental health, healing, guardian angels, shepherds, pharmacists, nurses & physicians.

Heart Chakra; love, compassion, empathy & balancing the mind & body

Archangel Gabriel – 5th Chakra: Self expression

Archangel Gabriel represents the 5th chakra (Throat); is associated with healing abilities & his name means God heals; he is known as a healer, a guide, a demon tamer & God's intercessor for mankind. He helps artists, writers & teachers to share their messages with clarity & meaning.

Being a True Archangel, Gabriel can create, shape & manipulate holy elements that are highly effective against the supernatural, such as demons, fallen angels and/or even her angelic brethren.

Throat; communication, self-expression & speaking your truth, also connected to confidence & creativity.

Archangel Metatron – 6th Chakra: Clarity of thought

Metatron represents the 6th chakra (Third Eye); one of the most powerful archangels, acting as the celestial scribe to the Book of Life, which keeps track of all the choices made by earthly & divine beings. Metatron also serves as the guide to humanity, is the speaker for God.

This Angel can be called upon to help replace negative thoughts with positive ones; Metatron is concerned about how people think because his work keeping the universe's records constantly shows him how people's negative thoughts lead to unhealthy choices while people's positive thoughts lead to healthy decisions.

Third Eye chakra; Inner vision, ability to perceive truths that are beyond physical sight; enlightenment achieved through meditation, spiritual connection to the higher realms

Julie's Tarot Reading

The Angels – The spiritual meaning

Archangel Uriel – 7th Chakra

Archangel Uriel represents the 7th chakra (Crown); associated with wisdom, truth & light; his name means "God is my light or "fire of God";

Uriel is a Godly official who delivers God's messages associated with lightning & thunder; also associated with resolving family, societal conflicts, strengthening faith & spiritual perseverance.

He is also associated with alchemical knowledge, intellectual insight, practical solutions & creative abilities.

Angel Uriel is associated with the Crown Chakra is associated with the pineal gland in the brain.

Authors Note

I hope this article gives you a clearer understanding of about these beautiful being.

There are of course many more Angels but today I have only covered the Angels that are associated with the 7 main Chakras & their associated angels.

If there is interest in knowing more about the other Angels then drop me an email & I'll do more of these articles.

Until then have a great day.