

Julie's Tarot Reading

Tarot card combinations

Eight of Cups & Ten of Pentacles Tarot combination

Eight of Cups is a card of departure & signifies leaving something behind. The figure in the card is walking away from an emotional situation that no longer serves our highest good.

The decision has been made to prioritize our emotional & spiritual health over the situation at hand - they are setting forth on a new journey to find their inner truth.

The Ten of Pentacles shows a high level of material success & family security.

It presents the feeling of security & stability that comes with having a strong foundation in the material & family possessions. It depicts a multi-generational family that has accumulated wealth & living a prosperous life.

Summary

The 8 of cups representing, in this combination, depicts a significant change in your life & suggests you have reached the point where you must leave the past behind to reach a more profound & stable meaning to life.

The 10 of Pentacles suggests it is important for the querent to have the support of their family during this time of transition; it is essential to have a solid foundation when making this significant change.

This combination suggests the person will take a risk & let go of the past to venture into the unknown to find their inner truth. They may feel a sense of fear & uncertainty about leaving their material stability behind – the cards are a reassurance that it is essential to make this change for long term spiritual growth.

I hope you enjoyed the meaning of these two Tarot card combinations, keep a look out for more coming soon...